Recommended New Books

A. London Alive
   This author of many famous novels has now turned to writing short stories with great success. The stories tell of Londoners’ daily lives and happen in eighteen different places – for example, one story takes place at a table in a café, another in the back of a taxi and another in a hospital.

B. Burnham’s Great Days
   Joseph Burnham is one of Britain’s best-loved painters these days, but I was interested to read that during his lifetime it was not always so. Art historian Peter Harvey looks at how Burnham’s work attracted interest at first but then became less popular.

C. The Missing Photograph
   Another story about the well-known policeman, Inspector Manning. It is written in the same simple but successful way as the other Manning stories – I found it a bit disappointing as I guessed who the criminal was halfway through!

D. Gone West
   A serious look at one of the least-known regions of the United States. The author describes the empty villages which thousands left when they were persuaded by the railway companies to go West in search of new lives. The author manages to provide many interesting details about their history.

E. The Letter
   The murder of a television star appears to be the work of thieves who are quickly caught. But they escape from prison and a young lawyer says she knows who the real criminals are. Written with intelligence, this story is so fast-moving that it demands the reader’s complete attention.

F. Let me tell you…
   The twenty stories in this collection describe the lives of different people who were born in London in 1825. Each story tells the life history of a different person. Although they are not true, they gave me a real feeling for what life used to be like for the ordinary person.

G. The Last Journey
   John Reynolds’ final trip to the African Congo two years ago unfortunately ended in his death. For the first time since then, we hear about where he went and what happened to him from journalist Tim Holden, who has followed Reynolds’ route.

H. Free at Last!
   Matthew Hunt, who spent half his life in jail for a crime he did not do, has written the moving story of his lengthy fight to be set free. Now out of prison, he has taken the advice of a judge to describe his experiences in a book.

Exploring the Arctic

The Arctic is one of the few places in the world untouched by pollution where you can see nature at its wildest and most beautiful. Join our ship the Northern Star from 2 to 18 July, for a 17-day voyage to the Arctic. During the voyage you are able to relax and get away from it all. There are no parties or film-shows to attend, quizzes to enter, or entertainers to watch. However, we do have specialists on board who are willing to answer any of your questions about the Arctic and who will talk about the animals and birds that you see on the trip.

After setting off from Scotland, we go north along the coast of Norway to Bear Island. Along the way you’ll see thousands of seabirds and wonderful scenery, with rivers of ice and huge cliffs. You will have the chance to see reindeer, polar bears, and other Arctic animals. Although we have a timetable, experience has shown that we may have to change our direction a little, depending on the weather and on which animals appear.

The Northern Star is a very special ship and our past voyages have been very popular. Our cabins all have the same excellent facilities, which include a private bathroom and refrigerator. Our chefs are happy to prepare any food for people on special diets. Choose just what you want to eat from the wide variety available from the dining room buffet. There is a library, shop, clinic and plenty of space for relaxation. If you need some exercise, why not go jogging every morning around the decks, or do some swimming in the indoor pool.

Prices include economy class air travel and 16 nights on board the Northern Star, all meals and excursions and all lectures.

Day 1 Board the Northern Star.

Days 2–7 We sail slowly north along the coast of Norway, stopping at places of interest.

Day 8 Tromsø. You need to get up at sunrise to see the whales as we sail towards Tromsø. Visit Tromsø to see the Arctic Museum, the cathedral and the beautiful old wooden houses. In the evening we sail away along the west coast to Bird Island, which is excellent for bird-watching.

Days 9–10 Bear Island. We arrive here in the early evening and stay overnight. Bear Island once had an active fishing industry, but today little of this remains. We will explore the island, looking out for Arctic flowers.

Days 11–16 Spitsbergen. A place of mountains and rivers of ice, it is home to a large variety of animals.

Day 17 Leave the ship in Spitsbergen and fly to London from Tromsø.
Questions 21-25

Read the text and questions below. For each question, mark the correct letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet.

Ainsley Harriott

I've always been a bit of an entertainer and played the funny man. I was a part-time comedian for years, so I learned how to stand in front of audiences. It made me sure of myself. I like being liked and I love making everyone smile.

I've lived in London all my life and have just moved to a larger house with my wife Clare and our two children, Jimmy and Madeleine. We spend a lot of time just singing and dancing around the house. I grew up with music because my dad is the pianist, Chester Harriott – who's still playing, by the way. My working day is divided between television and writing cook books, though TV takes most of my time. I spend about five days a fortnight working on the cooking programmes I appear in. I eat all sorts of things at home but I only buy quality food. When I'm cooking, I experiment with whatever is in the fridge – it’s good practice for my TV series.

I'm a football fan and enjoy going to matches, but I’m a home-loving person really. I don't like going to the pub but we do go out to eat about twice a month. There's nothing better than a night at home playing with the children. I rarely go to bed before midnight. Late evening is when fresh thoughts on cooking usually come to me, so I often write or plan my programmes then. When I eventually get to bed, I have no trouble sleeping!

21 What is the writer's main purpose in writing the text?
   A to describe how he lives
   B to say what makes him laugh
   C to talk about his cooking ideas
   D to explain how he started in TV

22 What would a reader learn about Ainsley from the text?
   A He is a very good musician.
   B He likes to plan the family meals.
   C He is nervous about performing on stage.
   D He enjoys spending time with his family.

23 What does the writer say about himself?
   A He loves going out and meeting people.
   B He is very similar to his father.
   C He enjoys being popular.
   D He should go to bed earlier.

24 What does he say about his working life?
   A He would like to appear less on TV.
   B He gets his best ideas at certain times.
   C He prefers being a comedian.
   D He should practise cooking more.

25 Which of the following is the best description of the writer?
   A The popular TV comedian who enjoys cooking, watching football, and having a busy social life.
   B The TV cook who loves making people laugh, watching football and, above all, having a happy family life.
   C The singing TV cook who likes making jokes, playing with his children, and having an early night.
   D The cook and comedian who takes great care about the way he cooks his food and enjoys listening to music more than anything.

Doug Allan, Wildlife Cameraman

I recently spent two years in the Arctic filming the series Blue Planet. I love being in an environment that hasn’t changed for 20,000 years. Of course it’s freezing, but it must be a healthy place because you never catch colds.

When I’m filming, I like to really feel how lonely the environment is. Filming underwater involves cutting through thick ice and diving in tied to a line. The person at the other end has to be ready to pull you out fast if necessary.

Originally I was a research diver for the British Antarctic Survey project, but for me science lacked excitement. I’d always enjoyed photography, and whenever camera teams passed through, they encouraged me to watch and learn. I was then able to move into filming in 1985 and have concentrated on Arctic and Antarctic wildlife ever since.

I prefer to be face to face with the animals I’m filming. I haven’t got in the water with killer whales yet, but I plan to. Of course, it’s dangerous if you choose the wrong moment. They’re big animals and can move fast, so I’d be stupid to film them searching for food!

I’ve never had problems with polar bears, although once I was frightened when one tried to get into my tent. Polar bears are bold, clever and dangerous. But I made this one see I wasn’t about to attack it – I’m sure it realised I wouldn’t hurt it.

When I come back home from my trips, I work in the mornings and spend the afternoons swimming to keep fit. Now I’m fifty, filming is harder. The challenge for me is to continue to deliver high-quality work.

21 In this text, Doug Allan is describing
A the challenges of the environment he works in.
B the career opportunities in TV camera work.
C the difficulties of having to work alone.
D the beautiful scenery of the Arctic.

22 What does Doug say about his early career?
A He wasted the years he spent as a scientist.
B It was a good chance to learn about filming.
C He was bored by working only in the Antarctic.
D It taught him how to become a skilled diver.

23 When talking about killer whales, Doug says that
A he will only film them from a safe distance.
B he has always been careful when diving with them.
C he tries to avoid any danger by facing them.
D he believes there are safe opportunities to film them.

24 How does Doug describe his experience with a polar bear?
A The animal was much more afraid than Doug was.
B Doug felt nervous that the bear might come back.
C The bear seemed to know Doug wasn’t a danger.
D Doug realised he was wrong to trust polar bears.

25 What might Doug say about his job as a cameraman?
A Now I’ve reached fifty, I realise the dangers involved in getting the best pictures are too great.
B I’m glad I gave up working as a scientist because I’m now in a position to be able to retire early.
C Although I find the work more difficult now I’m not as young, I still have other film projects I’m keen to do.
D I’ve made wildlife films in every country in the world, but I want to keep filming until I get too old.

PART 3 – STORY

CANDIDATE A

I felt nervous when the phone rang. I was waiting for a long time that moment, but I thought that never happened. But I was wrong. When I picked up the phone, I couldn’t say any word, but then listened the voice. Please is Myriam at home? Then my voice went out, and I began to shout, Yes! Yes! I am. What’s you want? A friendly voice answers me: Hello Myriam. Good evening. I can tell that you know why I am calling you. Maybe it’s because you are waiting this call for a long time. But now is real. I asked her: are you calling me from Brazilian Embassy? The voice answered me: Yes, I am, and I have good news for you. Your papers are OK, and you can fly to Brazil the next weekend. I couldn’t believe that. For more than 8 months I was waiting this paper, and that moment was here, more near than never.

Now I am in Brazil enjoying the beach, the sun, and the people, and remembered with a smile the moment when the phone rang one week ago.

EXAMINER COMMENTS

Band: 4

A good attempt at task, showing ambition and fluency. There is some range, including appropriate use of phrasal verbs and good use of expressions, e.g. 'with a smile'. However, there are a number of non-impeding errors, which hold the answer at the bottom of Band 4.

This is happened on Friday at 2 p.m. All day I was thinking about the exam, because this was first exam, that could give me permission to work. I was nervous a lot of. But though what could happened if I didn’t pass my exam.

When I answered on the phone call, I heard, "Taxi services".

Inadequate attempt. There are numerous errors and frequent misspellings of PET-level words, and the script requires considerable effort by the reader.
PART 3 - LETTER

CANDIDATE A

Dear Carmen,

Thank you for your letter. I'm really sorry that I didn't answer earlier. You asked me about my favorite TV programme, so I'll tell you something about this. If there is nothing special to do, every evening at 6 o'clock I watch a soap called "Friends". It's nearly the same as "VL" in Germany which I always watched. It's the kind of programme where you don't have to think – an easy programme which doesn't need your full concentration. So I can do some homework at the same time, or anything else. That's one of the reasons why I really enjoy watching this kind of TV.

I hope I hear something from you soon.

Lots of love

Alexis

EXAMINER COMMENTS

Very good attempt, showing confident and ambitious use of language. There is a good range of structures and vocabulary, e.g. "where you don't have to think", "full concentration". Coherent and reads well. Errors are non-impeding and due largely to ambition, e.g. "It's nearly the same as...".

CANDIDATE B

Dear David,

In your last letter you want to know about my favorite TV programme. I'm going to tell you about it. My best TV programme is "Ali McBeal". I love it because it makes me laugh so much. I feel close to "Ali" which is the main actress. I think it is because I'm in my thirties like she is. All the stories are very funny. I enjoy the music too. What is very nice is that Ali is a single woman who wants to find a "ideal man" but always happens a lot of things and finally she is along again.

You should watch this programme. I think you'll enjoy it.

I hope see you soon.

Lots of love

Luz

EXAMINER COMMENTS

Language is ambitious but flawed by a number of errors, though these are mainly non-impeding, e.g. "what is very nice", "a ideal man". Letter is quite well organised. There is an adequate range of language for the task.

3 marks.
Although all three content elements are attempted, basic language errors in tenses and spelling require some effort by the reader, with the overall clarity of the message impaired.

PART 3 - STORY

CANDIDATE A

The most important day of my life.
The most important day of my life is that happen on the day I first went to university which is a beatiful morden technology school in my home town. The reason why the day is most important is that in my country not everyone who a student can enter to a university. In the year which I went to university is about 4 in 10 student might to into the school. Because this, you could imagine how luck am I. Of course need I study hard and pass the exams which every student must attend and do my best to get high scores. In my mind I still remembered that day I wore my best cloth and felt full of exciting for my future.

EXAMINER COMMENTS

Band: 3
This answer is ambitious but flawed by a number of mostly non-impeding errors, for example ‘beatiful morden’, ‘how luck I am’, ‘I wore my best cloth and felt full of exciting’. The range of structures and vocabulary used is adequate (and occasionally more than adequate) for the task. There is some attempt at organisation, although the script requires some effort by the reader at times.

CANDIDATE B

The most important day of my life.
During a lifetime there is so many days you could call, the most important day of your life’. It could be the day you chose wich school you are going to, or what you want to work with the rest of your life. Another important day is when you get married, or you chose where to live. But most of all it must be a very important day when you give birth to a child. I think that changes everything you have been doing until then. Than you have to realize that somebody are more important than yourself

EXAMINER COMMENTS

Band: 5
This is a very good attempt, requiring no effort by the reader. The writer is confident, ambitious, and well organised, for example ‘Another important day is when you get married’. There is a wide range of structures and vocabulary within the task set and errors, though present, are minor and due to ambition, for example ‘It could be the day you chose wich school you are going to’.
Dear Michael,

Thank you for your letter. I'm very pleased that you found something you enjoy. I'm not very interested in computers. I prefer books. I love reading, but now it's very difficult, because I have to read English books. It takes time to start read something which is not in your mother language. And you know, my English is not so good that I could read everything. Especially if I'm reading just romantic books. I'm not just reading all the time. I like doing sports, too. I like playing basketball and football, but I'm not good at it. Now I have some meetings, so I hope to hear from you soon.

Lots of love,
Lenka
